

I am asking the FCC to disapproved the Consumer Banking Association petition challenging Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We, in Indiana have worked very hard to have some peace and tranquility in our homes specially while we share at the diner table with our families. I do my banking with my local keybank. They know me by name they respect my privacy. They do not need this "establish business relationship" exception to the Indiana law to contact me.